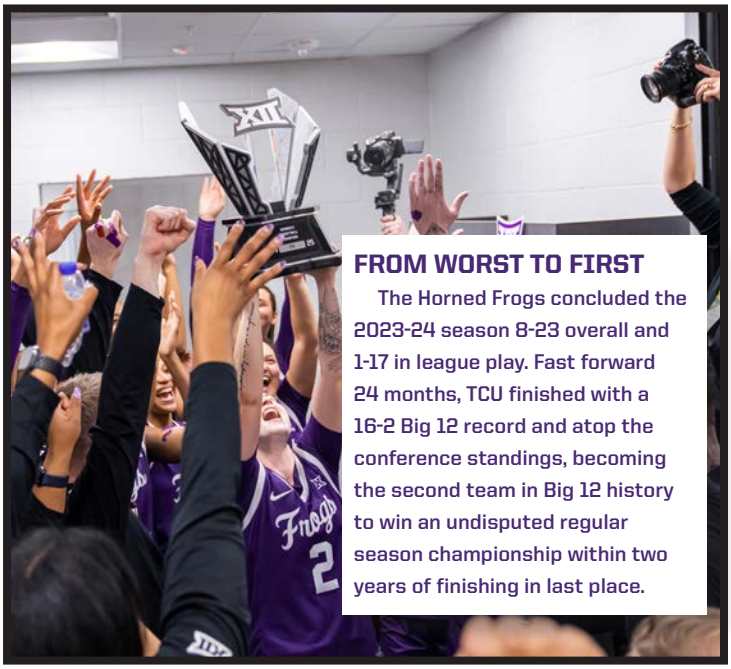
2025 Undisputed Big 12 Champions

The 2024-25 TCU women's basketball team became the first in school history to win a Big 12 basketball championship

A FINALE FOR THE AGES

TCU defeated Baylor, 51-48, on March 2, 2025, at Foster Pavilion. It was the first time the undisputed regular season championship was decided in the final game of the regular season.

Two years after finishing in last place for the second straight season, TCU won an outright Big 12 regular season title.



FROM WORST TO FIRST

The Horned Frogs concluded the 2023-24 season 8-23 overall and 1-17 in league play. Fast forward 24 months, TCU finished with a 16-2 Big 12 record and atop the conference standings, becoming the second team in Big 12 history to win an undisputed regular season championship within two years of finishing in last place.

FOR ALL THE MARBLES: #10 TCU 51, #17 BAYLOR 48

JUST TCU, PLEASE

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU men's tennis, TCU volleyball, TCU football, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully request that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation–TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

WELCOME TO FUNKY TOWN

WELCOME TO FORT WORTH
The City of Cowboys & Culture is the 13th-largest city in the United States, jumping ahead of Columbus, Ohio and San Francisco in 2019 with a population of 938,055. Fort Worth is part of the No. 1 tourist destination in Texas, welcoming 8.8 million visitors annually. Nicknamed Cow Town and Funky Town, Fort Worth is comprised of seven primary entertainment districts each offering distinct dining, shopping, entertainment and cultural amenities. In only a few days, you can enjoy a range of experiences from NASCAR racing to rodeos, world-class museums to cowboy cuisine, boutique shopping to the nation's No. 1 ranked zoo, biking to horseback riding.

Fort Worth is conveniently located 17.5 miles from DFW International Airport. With 1,850 flights daily, DFW Airport serves as a gateway for visitors from around the globe, making Fort Worth an easily accessible international and domestic leisure destination.

The heart of downtown Fort Worth is Sundance Square, a 35-block shopping and entertainment district where you'll find a multitude of restaurants, shops, galleries and performance venues.
Fort Worth restaurants offer everything from Tex-Mex and barbecue to world-class cuisine.

The gorgeous Fort Worth Botanical Garden and the downtown Water Gardens are some of Fort Worth's most popular outdoor attractions.
Fort Worth's Texas Motor Speedway is one of the largest racing facilities in the nation, with seating for nearly 155,000 spectators.

Once home to cowboys, cattlemen and outlaws, today the Stockyards National Historic District is one of the most popular attractions in Texas. Day and night, visitors come to the Stockyards to get a taste of the true American West. The Fort Worth Herd, the world's only twice-daily cattle drive takes place at 11:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Exchange Avenue.

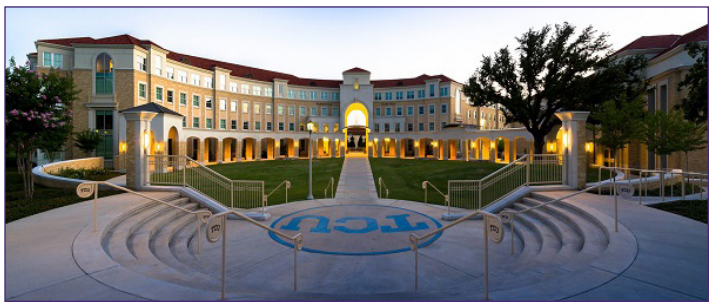
TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

FORGE A NEW PATH. NURTURING DOERS, DREAMERS, TRAILBLAZERS
Texas Christian University is a place where students learn how to adapt to whatever the future might bring, develop critical-thinking skills and forge new paths. With a choice of rigorous academic programs in 119 undergraduate areas of study, 53 master's level programs and 28 areas of doctoral study, Horned Frogs are primed for professional success and personal achievement after graduation.
This is an education in which people are the priority. The TCU experience enables our students to broaden their intellect, their beliefs and their values – the qualities most needed for leadership in a rapidly evolving environment. Whether in the fine arts or health or engineering, Horned Frogs can discover their passions and expand their talents.
At TCU, professors love being in the classroom. These mentoring teacher-scholars also conduct well- published, leading-edge research, often with undergraduates at their side.
Horned Frogs live, learn and play 24-7 in a beautiful setting in dynamic Fort Worth. They work out in state-of-the-art recreational facilities, watch Big 12 NCAA athletic competition and participate in 225 organizations, all without leaving the campus.
That is when they're not providing thousands of hours of volunteer service to their community, interning in New York or London, practicing journalism in Washington, D.C., experiencing international business in Hong Kong or perfecting interior design skills in Florence.
This is how Horned Frogs are learning to change the world.

OUR MISSION
To educate individuals to think and act as ethical leaders and responsible citizens in the global com- munity

OUR VISION
To be a world-class, values-centered university

OUR CORE VALUES
TCU values academic achievement, personal freedom and integrity, the dignity of and respect for the individual, and a deep heritage that includes inclusiveness and service



ED AND RAE SCHOLLMAIER ARENA

ED AND RAE SCHOLLMAIER ARENA FACTS
Previously known as the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, the facility underwent a $72 million renovation that was completed during the 2015-16 season. The Schollmaiers provided the lead gift of $10 million. The Daniel- Meyer name is still prominent as the entire area is known as the Daniel-Meyer Athletic Complex.

The TCU men's and women's basketball programs received new locker rooms and team meeting rooms as well as an expanded sports medicine center. There is also locker rooms for visiting teams and a new video board.

The new building facade for the Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena architecturally complements Amon G. Carter Stadium and the TCU campus. The interior has a lower playing surface to increase courtside seating and provide a more intimate atmosphere. Wider concourses and multiple public entries have helped ease congestion. The fan experience is further enhanced by new concession stands, a food court and restrooms as well as increased points of sale. A new courtside club lounge is also located on floor level. The facility also includes offices for the athletics administrative staff as well as coaches in various sports, allowing the Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena to be the hub of TCU Athletics.

Additional features of the Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena are a TCU Athletics Hall of Fame on the concourse level, offices for Olympic sports and administration and a larger main ticket office to support the arena and Amon G. Carter Stadium.

ED AND RAE SCHOLLMAIER HISTORY
Ed Schollmaier is the former CEO of Alcon Laboratories, Inc., while the late Rae Schollmaier was a dedicated civic volunteer. Through the Schollmaier Foundation, they were both longtime philanthropic leaders in Fort Worth. A TCU Trustee since 1996, Ed Schollmaier chaired the Building and Grounds Committee and served on the Executive, Fiscal Affairs and Intercollegiate Athletics committees, as well as the Committee on Trusteeship.

Ed Schollmaier was a member of the Neeley School International Board of Visitors and the recipient of Neeley's Ike Harrison Award. He has been recognized as an Honorary Alumnus and an Honorary TCU Letterman. Rae Schollmaier served on the College of Fine Arts International Board of Visitors, the Fine Arts Task Force of The Commission on the Future of TCU and the KinderFrogs School Advisory Board. For their service and generous support, the Schollmaiers were honored with TCU's Horizon Award and the Royal Purple Award.

The Schollmaiers also supported TCU Athletics through the Ed and Rae Schollmaier Basketball Complex, which opened in 2004.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 enters its 30th year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

Starting Aug. 2, 2024, the Conference is composed of 16 universities spanning 10 states and four time zones. The Big 12 members include Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, BYU, UCF, Cincinnati, Colorado, Houston, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas Tech, Utah and West Virginia.

The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 87 team NCAA national championships, and 764 individual national champions. The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

Big 12 Fast Facts

- The Big 12 sponsors 25 sports across the Fall, Winter and Spring seasons.
- Men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling.
- Women's sports include basketball, beach volleyball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, lacrosse, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 24 of its 25 sports.
- The league has been home to over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- In the last 15 seasons, 36 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.

The Big 12 has the best bowl win percentage of any conference over the last two seasons (.833).
The Conference placed 70 percent of teams in 2021 bowl games for the first time since 2018, and had seven bowl squads for the 18th season out of the last 23. Baylor and Oklahoma State played in and won CFP New Year's Six Bowls to give the Big 12 two teams in the postseason structure for the sixth time in its eight years. From 2017-19, Oklahoma made three straight CFP semifinal appearances and has made four since 2015.

The Conference has claimed seven Heisman winners, including former OU signal callers Kyler Murray in 2018 and Baker Mayfield in 2017. The Big 12 has had a finalist in 16 of its 26 seasons for a total of 21 with two finalists in five seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Alison Gibson (Texas) was presented the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award in January 2021. It recognizes former student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. Since 1996, the Big 12 has a total of 14 honorees for this prestigious award. In the last 12 seasons, 25 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 Award with Emma LaPinta (Oklahoma gymnastics) and Jules Callaham (Oklahoma State softball) earning their second straight honor in 2022. Additionally, OSU's Ryan Schoppe was rewarded for Men's Indoor Track in 2022. The accolade showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has over 780 Academic All-America recipients, averaging over 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. On 24 occasions a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Bianca St. Georges (West Virginia) for soccer in 2018-19, Brittany Brewer (Texas Tech) for women's basketball in 2019-20 and Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) for football in 2021-22.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsmanship awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 481 scholars have received over $3.7 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 25 years of the program.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports with the Football Championship Game returning in 2017 after a six-year absence. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

The Ultimate Summer Study Abroad

Four Frogs represented their home countries in FIBA Basketball

OLIVIA MILES | FIBA AMERICUP

Miles was one of 12 collegians selected to compete for USA Basketball at the 2025 FIBA AmeriCup and won her second career FIBA gold medal in leading Team USA on an unbeaten run. She averaged 7.1 assists, 6.9 points and 5.3 rebounds per game while connecting at a 53 percent clip from the field. Miles Led the tournament in assists per game and total assists (50). She dished out 10 dimes - the most ever by an American player in FIBA AmeriCup history - in a 103-48 win over Mexico during the group phase. Miles paired a game-high nine assists with eight points to lift the Americans to a 92-84 win over Brazil in the first-place game.

CLARA SILVA | FIBA U19 WORLD CUP

Standing 6-7, Silva established herself as Portugal's top amateur player. She was named Best Defensive Player and was one of five players selected to the All-Tournament team after leading Portugal to its first-ever FIBA quarterfinal appearance. Silva averaged near double-double of 23 points, 9.7 rebounds and 2.9 blocks per game. She led the tournament in total blocks (20), blocks per game and efficiency rating (+25). Silva finished with a +43 efficiency valuation along with 37 points and 10 rebounds to lift Portugal to an 83-80 win over Israel in the round of 16. The efficiency valuation was the second highest in FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup history while her 37 points were the most scored by a European in the competition since 1989.

CLARA BIELEFELD GERMAN SENIOR NATIONAL TEAM

At age-17, Bielefeld became the youngest player to ever suit up for Germany's senior national team in May of 2024. She received her first call-up to the parent club for the FIBA Women's EuroBasket Championship. Bielefeld went on to help Germany finish as the vice champion at FIBA U18 Women's EuroBasket Division B in July. She averaged 10.9 rebounds, 8.9 points, 5.3 assists, 2.7 blocks and 2.4 steals per game. Bielefeld, 6-4, led all guards in total rebounding average and offensive rebounds per game (3.5). Her efforts lifted Germany to a promotion back to Division A for 2026.

TAYLOR BIGBY | USA BASKETBALL 3X3

Bigby gained invaluable exposure to USA Basketball on the 3x3 circuit. She competed at 3x Nationals in May in Mesa, Ariz., and parlayed the three-day showcase into a selection to the 3x3 U23 National Team at the U23 Nations League in July. There, Bigby - one of six players to make the team - guided Team USA to a FIBA Americas Conference Championship. The 6-1 guard saw action in three-of-six stops and finished as the Americans' leading scorer on multiple occasions. Bigby was then tabbed to the USA 3x3 Women's National Team for the FIBA 3x3 U23 World Cup in September. She helped Team USA reach the quarterfinals.

MARK CAMPBELL

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON

From the moment he was hired, Mark Campbell has restored TCU women's basketball to national relevance.

Campbell was named the eighth head women's basketball coach in TCU athletics history on March 21, 2023, and success has followed at every turn. Two years after inheriting a TCU program that went 8-23 (.258) the season prior to his arrival, Campbell led the Horned Frogs to a clean sweep of the Big 12 regular season and tournament championships and on a run to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament in 2024-25. Under Campbell's direction, TCU finished 34-4 overall, earned a No. 2 seed in the Big Dance and checked in at No. 6 in the final AP Top 25. Campbell guided the Horned Frogs to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 15 seasons and the university's first Big 12 basketball championships since joining the league in 2012. A 20-year veteran of the coaching industry, Campbell was duly honored by his peers as Big 12 Coach of the Year and as one of four finalists for the Naismith Coach of the Year Award.

With Campbell at the helm, TCU has enjoyed the greatest turnaround in college basketball ahead of the 2025-26 campaign. Campbell has facilitated a combined 26-game year-over win improvement - the largest of any program nationwide - over the last two seasons. TCU and Campbell's run to an undisputed Big 12 regular season championship in 2024-25 saw the program become one of only two in conference history to capture a league title within two seasons of finishing in last place. Campbell augmented TCU's year-over conference win tally by 12 games in 2024-25, good for the largest single-season increase in college basketball and largest year-over-year conference regular season win percentage improvement (.556) at the Power Conference level.

Before touching down in the Lone Star State, Campbell served two seasons as head coach at Sacramento State from 2021-23, guiding the Hornets to their first-ever Big Sky regular season and tournament championships and first NCAA Tournament berth in his final year at the helm. Campbell came to northern California following a seven-year assistant coaching tenure at Oregon, where he became widely regarded as the nation's best recruiter. While in Eugene, Campbell was responsible for the recruitment of three top-10 picks in the 2020 WNBA Draft in Sabrina Ionescu (No. 1), Satou Sabally (No. 2) and Ruthy Hebard (No. 8). He also assembled the No. 1 overall recruiting class in 2020, a group that included five players who were both consensus top-25 talents and McDonald's All-Americans.

Across his two decades in the industry, Campbell has recruited and coached 15 WNBA or NBA Draft selections, most recently mentoring Hailey Van Lith into the No. 11 overall pick in the 2025 WNBA Draft. Of equal note, nine of Campbell's former players competed in the 2024 Summer Olympics, including Ionescu and Van Lith, who respectively earned gold and bronze medals for Team USA in 5-on-5 and 3x3. In four years as a head coach, three of Campbell's point guards have claimed conference player of the year honors; Van Lith (TCU, 2025), Kahlaijah Dean (Sac State, 2023) and Lianna Tillman (Sac State, 2022). Campbell has coached nine All-American players in his career, among them Van Lith and Sedona Prince during the 2024-25 season.

Over the past two seasons, Campbell and the Horned Frogs have shattered nearly every major school record, including single-season marks for total wins (34), home wins (21, Big 12 wins (19) and ranked wins (nine) in 2024-25. A hallmark of Campbell's spread pick-n-roll offense, TCU drained an NCAA-leading 354 threes last season and has knocked down 666 deep balls over the last two seasons, which are are the most ever by a Big 12 team in a two-year period and the third-most of any D1 program since 2023.

Campbell's leadership has reinvigorated a passion for women's basketball across the Dallas-

Fort Worth Metroplex. His 2024-25 Horned Frogs squad inspired a 65.5 percent increase in total fan attendance from the 2023-24 season. TCU and Campbell increased their cumulative attendance figure by 29,332 fans and drew the largest home crowd to ever attend a TCU women's sporting event (7,494 fans) in its second round NCAA Tournament victory over Louisville.

TCU (2024-25)

The 2024-25 season was the greatest in TCU men's and women's basketball history by every measure. Two seasons after finishing dead last in the Big 12, Campbell guided TCU to a clean sweep of the conference regular season and tournament titles, a No. 2 seed and Elite Eight run in the NCAA Tournament and a school record 34 victories. Campbell delivered TCU its first Big 12 basketball championships, its first NCAA Tournament berth in 15 years and became the first head coach to lead a Horned Frog basketball team to the second weekend of the Big Dance. TCU attained its highest AP Top 25 ranking ever at No. 6 following its Big 12 tournament title and maintained the mark in the season's final poll. Campbell and the Horned Frogs defeated a school record nine ranked teams, highlighted by the program's highest-ranked win in a nonconference defeat of No. 3 Notre Dame and first victories over national power Baylor in 35 years. TCU finished unbeaten at home (21-0) for the first time ever and capped its showcase along Stadium Dr by hosting NCAA Tournament games for the first time ever.

TCU again led the Power Conference ranks in year-over win improvement differential (+13) and topped the charts in conference percentage increase (+556). Campbell's squad led the nation in 3-pointers (354) and finished as the only team nationwide ranked in the top-10 in 3-pointers, 3-point percentage (6th,.380) and 3-pointers per game (9th, 9.5). The Horned Frogs' 34 victories were tied for the fourth-most of any D1 program. TCU also earned the distinction of being the sole team at the Power Conference level to win both an undisputed regular season league title and conference tournament championship.

Campbell vaulted TCU into the mainstream well before the season even began with the recruitment of eventual Big 12 Player of the Year Hailey Van Lith. The transfer guard was named to the 2024 USA Basketball 3x3 Women's National Team just weeks after pledging to Campbell and went on to lead the Americans to a bronze medal at the Paris Games, becoming TCU's first Olympics medalist in 24 years. Van Lith became Campbell's eighth of nine All-Americans at season's end, as she earned accolades from every major publication, including third team honors by the Associated Press and U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Together, Campbell and Van Lith were the architects of college basketball's most captivating story and their contributions were reflected in the year-end awards roundup. Campbell was crowned Big 12 Coach of the Year and was honored as one of four finalists for the Naismith Coach of the Year award. He became the first coach in the history of the Big 12 to garner Conference Coach of the Year honors withintwo seasons of joining the league and was the only Naismith Coach of the Year finalist who has spent less than five seasons in a head coaching capacity. Campbell coached Van Lith to a sweep of Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Year honors. Van Lith was one of three All-Big 12 first team players Campbell mentored alongside Sedona Prince and Madison Conner. All three players were Naismith Starting Five Awards finalists at their respective positions. Van Lith broke TCU's single-season records for points scored (683) and assists (204) and was one of only three players in the country in 2024-25 to record 600 points and 200 assists. Conner drilled an NCAA-leading 128 threes en route to becoming a Drysdale Award finalist for the first time in her career. Prince closed out her college career with a trio of honorable mention All-American citations from the Associated Press, USBWA and WBCA and was tabbed as a Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist.

By the Numbers
Mark Campbell at TCU

666 TCU drained 666 threes in its first two years under Campbell's leadership, which are the most in a two-season window in the history of the Big 12 Conference.

13 Campbell has improved the Frogs' year-over win differential by 13 games in each of his two seasons at the helm.

30 Campbell was one of only two head coaches in college women's basketball in 2024-25 to win 30 games in his/her first or second season as head coach at his/her respective school

1 Ahead of Campbell's third season in Funky Town, TCU is the only team in college women's basketball ranking in the top-10 nationally in 3-pointers, 3-pointers per game and 3-point percentage cumulatively since 2023.

354 TCU topped the national charts in 3-pointers in 2024-25. The 354 triples were also the second-most in a season by a Big 12 team.

6 Campbell led TCU to its highest AP Top 25 ranking ever in 2024-25.

34 Campbell's 2024-25 team was the winningest in program history. The Horned Frogs set program records for total wins (34), home wins (21) and Big 12 wins (19.)

56 Campbell spearheaded the largest year-over-year conference regular season win percentage improvement at the Power Conference level in 2024-25

TCU (2023-24)

Campbell facilitated a 13-game year-over-year win improvement – the largest of any Power Six conference program – in his first year in Fort Worth. TCU finished with a 21-12 overall record and earned its first postseason berth in five years, advancing to the second round of the WBIT. Behind Campbell, TCU enjoyed the largest year-over-year win improvement and win percentage increase (.399) of all Power Six conference programs, leading the country in both metrics among teams with a first-year head coach. The Horned Frogs ranked third and fourth, respectively, across the national ranks in winning percentage differential and year-over win total. Campbell was one of only four head coaches to more than double his team's overall win tally from 2022-23. TCU finished as one of only two teams in the country ranked in the top-10 nationally in 3-pointers, 3-point percentage and 3-point percentage differential.

Campbell also led TCU to its earliest AP top-25 ranking in 13 years and ascended the Horned Frogs as high as 22nd in the NCAA NET Rankings.

Known for facilitating rapid rebuilds, Campbell more than lived up to his reputation. Campbell led TCU to its first postseason berth in five years, as the Horned Frogs received a No. 3 seed in the WBIT and advanced to the second round of the inaugural event. Campbell sparked the program renaissance by leading TCU to its best start to a season in school history. TCU won 14 straight games to begin the year, running the table in nonconference play for the second time ever and setting a program record for consecutive victories. Along the way, Campbell became the first TCU head men's or women's basketball coach to break into The Associated Press poll in year one on the job. TCU cracked the AP top-25 on Dec. 18, 2023 – its earliest appearance in 13 years – and attained a season-high ranking of 23rd the following week. Campbell also guided TCU to its best-ever NCAA Net Ranking, as the Horned Frogs ascended as high as 22nd in the tables after ending the 2022-23 season tabbed No. 131.

TCU broke six school records in 2023-24, setting new all-time marks for 3-pointers (312), season assist average (16.7), season rebounding defense (34.2), 3-point attempts (862) and consecutive wins (14). The Horned Frogs also notched the second-most assists (551) in a season in program history. Individually, Madison Conner knocked down a school record 100 threes in Campbell's spread pick-and-roll offense. Conner became the fifth Big 12 player to reach triple figures in threes in a season while TCU produced the third-highest 3-pointer per game average (9.5) in conference history.

Under Campbell, Conner and Sedona Prince became the top-two scorers in the Big 12 and the nation's highest-scoring tandem as the only duo in the country to average 20 points per game apiece. Both players garnered postseason all-conference accolades despite missing significant time due to injury, with Conner tabbed to the All-Big 12 second team. Prince was one of 10 centers named a Lisa Leslie Award finalist – the first TCU player to achieve the milestone – and was selected to the Wooden Award Midseason Top-25 Watch List.

 - 2019-20 season abruptly ended due to COVID-19 pandemic

Campbell has reinvigorated a passion for women's basketball within the TCU and Fort Worth communities. TCU increased its cumulative attendance figure by 29,332 fans and drew the largest home crowd to ever attend a TCU women's sporting event (7,494 fans) in its second round NCAA Tournament victory over Louisville.

Campbell became one of only two Big 12 head coaches to lead his or her team to an undisputed regular season championship within two seasons of his or her hire in 2025. He is also the only coach in league history to be named conference Coach of the Year in their first or second season in the Big 12.

Ticket demands and community interest in TCU women's basketball bloomed amidst the Frogs' record-setting first year under Campbell. A total of 44,806 fans packed the purple bleachers over 20 home games, constituting a 55 percent increase in total fan attendance from the previous season. Campbell's squad also helped inspire a 102 percent increase in student attendance.

Campbell couped the nation's No. 11 overall and the Big 12's top-rated transfer class in the 2023 recruiting cycle according to the On3's Team Transfer Portal Index. TCU signed three players featured in World Exposure Report's expanded top-100 player rankings in Prince (No. 25), Conner (No. 66) and No. 92 Agnes Emma-Nnopu. Campbell's six-player transfer class included a pair of consensus five-star talents in Prince, who was graded the No. 8 overall prospect in the class of 2018 by ESPN.com, and Jaden Owens, the nation's 13th-best talent and No. 3 point guard prospect in 2019, along with four-star guards Conner and Emma-Nnopu.

Sacramento State (2021-23)

After inheriting a 3-22 team, it took Campbell just two seasons to take the Hornets to the NCAA Tournament. Campbell led Sacramento State to a school record 25 wins and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in program history in 2022-23. The Hornets won a share of their first Big Sky regular season championship and first Big Sky Tournament title. The 25 victories marked the first 20-win season in program history and were also the most ever by a Sacramento State men's or women's basketball team.

Campbell facilitated an 11-game year-over-year win improvement in each of his two seasons at the helm. Sacramento State's 14 wins in its first season under Campbell were tied for the nation's seventh-best turnaround.

During his two years with Sacramento State, in which he produced a 39-24 record, Campbell coached four players to All-Big Sky honors. Included in that total were Conference Most Valuable Players Lianna Tillman in 2021-22, the first Hornet to win the honor in the program's history, and Kahlaijah Dean in 2022-23. The Hornets also had the Big Sky Newcomer of the Year recipient in each of the last two seasons in Isnelle Natabou in 2021-22 and Dean in 2022-23.

Oregon (2014-21)

Campbell spent seven seasons at Oregon with the last six as associate head coach. Campbell helped lead Oregon to three straight Pac-12 regular-season titles, two Pac-12 Tournament championships and six NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Final Four in 2019. He worked with Oregon's guards, created the Ducks' defensive game plan and was the team's lead recruiter.

Campbell was responsible for recruiting Ionescu, one of the most decorated players in the sport's history. Ionescu was joined in the top 10 of the 2020 WNBA Draft by teammates Satou Sabally (No. 2) and Ruthy Hebard (No. 8), both of whom Campbell also played a huge role in bringing to the Ducks.

Regarded as the one of the nation's elite recruiters,

  - Sabrina Ionescu (Pac-12, 2018-20)
  - Jillian Alleyne (Pac-12, 2016)
- Assembled the No. 1 and No. 3 overall recruiting classes in 2020 and 2016, respectively, at Oregon
- Guided Oregon to six consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the program's first-ever Final Four in 2019

Campbell brought high level talent each year to Oregon. Campbell was the lead recruiter in the hunt for Ionescu, who was the top-ranked guard in the country and No. 4 overall recruit. It helped Oregon net the nation's No. 3 ranked class in 2016. Campbell was then instrumental in Oregon landing its first-ever No. 1 ranked recruiting class in 2020, bringing in five players who were consensus top-25 recruits and McDonalds All-Americans. Campbell was also key in signing top international players, including Berlin, Germany, native Satou Sabally, considered the top international forward in the 2017 recruiting class, and her younger sister, star power forward Nyara Sabally, in the 2018 class.

Campbell and the Ducks advanced to the program's first-ever NCAA Final Four in 2019 while repeating as Pac-12 regular-season champions and totaling a school-record 33 wins for the second year in a row. For the first time in his career, Campbell tutored a player to national player of the year honors as Ionescu was named both the Wooden Award and Wade Trophy winner.

In 2018, Campbell helped guide the Ducks to a second straight Elite Eight appearance and the program's first Pac-12 regular-season championship since 2000. The Ducks also captured their first Pac-12 Tournament title in program history behind a championship game record 36 points from Ionescu in a 20-point win over Stanford. Ionescu earned her first of three straight Pac-12 Player of the Year awards and became the Oregon's first first-team All-American since 1982.

Oregon's rise to prominence began with the 2016-17 season, when Ionescu and Hebard burst onto the scene as true freshmen and helped Oregon secure its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2005. A No. 11 seed, Oregon beat No. 2 seed Duke on its home floor in the second round. The Ducks kept their magical run going with another upset over No. 3 seed Maryland to reach the first Elite Eight in program history. Ionescu went on to earn ESPNW and USBWA national Freshman of the Year honors.

Before Oregon (2005-10)

Prior to joining Oregon, Campbell served on the staff at Oregon State. Beginning as an assistant coach, he was promoted to associate head coach for the 2013-14 season. Campbell proved instrumental in the recruiting efforts of the Beavers. He was an integral part of turning around a program that went from 9-21 in 2010-11 to an NCAA Second Round appearance in 2014.

Before heading to Corvallis, Campbell spent two seasons with the men's program at Saint Mary's. He was the team's director of operations before becoming an assistant coach under Randy Bennett. Preceding his stint at Saint Mary's, Campbell spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant coach for the Pepperdine men's program under Vance Walberg.

From 2005-07, Campbell coached at Clackamas Community College in Oregon City, Ore., helping the Cougars to the 2007 Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges (NWAACC) Championship.

Playing Career (2000-04)

Campbell played at Cal Poly and Clackamas CC before transferring to Hawai`i for his final two seasons. He guided the Warriors to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2002 and NIT appearance in 2003. Starting all but one game, he is the winningest two-year player in Hawai`i's history and led the team to a school-record 27 victories in 2001-02. He was a WAC all-defensive team pick as a senior and was a two-time WAC all-academic selection. In June 2016, Campbell was inducted into the Clackamas Hall of Fame. In 2012 and 2013, Campbell was selected to attend Nike's renowned Villa 7 Consortium, which brings together university athletics directors and the country's elite assistant coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball head coaches.

Personal

Campbell earned a degree in liberal studies from Hawai`i in 2004, adding a master's degree in education from George Fox in 2006. He is a native of Mt. Vernon, Wash. Campbell and his wife, Ashley, who played basketball at Vanderbilt, have two daughters, Maley and Makay.

Milestone Victories

1 Nov. 14, 2021 vs. San Jose State (W, 75-65)

*Campbell entered the win column as a head coach in his second game at the helm at Sac State. The Hornets erased a 13-point second half deficit in the win, outscoring the Spartans 30-7 in the fourth quarter.

25 Jan. 5, 2023 vs. Idaho (W, 71-56)

*Win No. 25 in Campbell's career placed the Hornets on a trajectory to earn the institution's first NCAA Tournament berth in men's or women's basketball. The home triumph over the Vandals punctuated a 2-0 start to conference play. Sac State went on to finish 13-5 in Big Sky action and earned a share of its first league title, then won the conference tournament to book its ticket to the Big Dance.

50 Dec. 17, 2023 vs. Lamar (W, 68-51)

*Campbell's 50th career victory was the 11th installment of a TCU women's basketball record 14-game winning streak to begin his inaugural season as the Horned Frogs' head man. The 2023-24 squad is the only team in program history to run the table in nonconference play.

75 Jan. 4, 2025 vs. Cincinnati (W, 81-66)

*Campbell and the Horned Frogs broke their own program record for the best start to a season in program history in a wire-to-wire takedown of the Bearcats. In addition to being Campbell's 75th career win, the victory staked TCU to a 15-1 start to the 2024-25 campaign, trumping their 14-1 record from the previous season.

94 March 29, 2025 vs. #8 Notre Dame (W, 71-62)

*Campbell's most recent win leading into his third season in Fort Worth, the Frogs again rallied from a multi-possession deficit vs. national power Notre Dame in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, becoming the first TCU basketball team to reach the Elite Eight. The monumental win also sent Campbell to his fourth NCAA quarterfinal as a head coach or associate head coach since 2017.

The First Time TCU and Campbell...

Beat a ranked team Nov. 17, 2024 vs. #13 NC State W 76-73

*TCU had lost 25 consecutive games vs. ranked teams prior to its breakthrough victory over the Wolfpack in the fourth game of the 2024-25 season. Campbell and Co. went on to earn nine ranked wins.

Defeated a top-five team Nov. 29, 2024 vs. #3 Notre Dame W 76-68

*A game that affectionately became known as the 'Cayman Islands Classic,' TCU erased any doubt as to the validity of its ascension into the upper echelon of the sport 12 days following its upset of NC State. Down 14 late in the third quarter, The Frogs hung 31 points on the Fighting Irish in the final frame at John Gray High School Gym in George Town, Grand Cayman to earn the highest-ranked win in program history.

Won a league title March 2, 2025 at #17 Baylor W 51-48

*In a winner-take-all game, TCU went into Waco in its regular season finale, No. 10 TCU knocked off its archrival to claim the outright Big 12 regular season championship. TCU became the first team in league history to win an undisputed championship within two seasons of finishing in last place.

Won a conference tournament March 9, 2025 vs. #17 Baylor W 64-59

*TCU captured its first conference tournament championship in 20 seasons, downing its green and gold adversary again in Kansas City. TCU also joined Baylor as one of three programs to sweep the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles.

Won an NCAA Tournament game March 21, 2025 vs. FDU W 73-51

*TCU had not been to the Big Dance in 15 years prior to its first round takedown of No. 15 seed FDU, a game that was doubly significant in that it was the first NCAA Tournament game held inside Schollmaier Arena.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARK CAMPBELL

SABRINA IONESCU, NY LIBERTY

"Wherever Mark goes, I'm a fan. I'll be a fan forever wherever he goes because of who he is and how successful that program is going to be ... Any team that is passing on him or has passed on him is making a mistake and the next team that's going to take a chance with him as head coach is making the right move."

SATOU SABALLY, Phoenix Mercury

"It meant a lot to me that he would fly to my town. We bonded quickly. It felt good to know someone personally and not talk to them on the phone only. He was the only one that I let come multiple times, because our conversations and meetings felt natural ... Sometimes it got really hard for me, especially after Christmas my freshman year, because I couldn't go home. He and [his wife] Ashley always took care of me and made us all feel at home since we had a lot of international players."

Minyon Moore, TCU

"I joined coach Campbell's staff because of the relationship we had my senior year at the University of Oregon. He believed in me not only as a player, but as a person during one of the hardest years of my life and for that the decision was easy. I always knew one day he'd make an incredible head coach."

Ismelle Natabou, Sacramento State

"He teaches us that it is not necessary to be a great player in all categories, but it is necessary to find directions that we will develop to near perfection, which will help our team one step closer to victory. We are a unit full of imperfections as individuals, but only if we work together as one mind – the sky is the limit."

Ruthy Hebard, TCU / Oregon / WNBA

"Coach Mark has been a big part of my career on and off the court. Just like at Oregon State, the University of Oregon, and Sacramento State, he has played a huge part in making those programs successful. I know he will have the same impact at TCU. I'm thankful to have had him coach me and that I have someone like him in my circle!"

RAndy Bennett, St. Mary's

"Everybody has to make sacrifices, but the ones he wasn't willing to make were him being a good husband, dad and Christian. That worked well for us. We're all about that ... If I could buy stock in a guy, I'd buy stock in him. You hope to have your kids turn out as squared away as he is."

Matthew Dellavedova, St. Mary's / NBA

"Campbell is a friendly, nice guy, but when you get him on the court, he's as competitive as anyone. It was always a battle."

Kelly Graves, Oregon

"Mark was an incredibly valuable piece of my coaching staff over the last seven seasons and is more than ready to be a head coach. He is a tireless worker and tremendous recruiter, and we are grateful for everything he has done for our program and student-athletes."

Cori Close, UCLA

"Mark Campbell is a builder and an investor in people. He and his wife Ashley will build winning people as well as a winning program."

Vance Walberg, Pepperdine / NBA

"The first time I met him, I knew he was special. Right then and there, I knew that was someone I wanted to hire. There's not one aspect of the game he can't do."

Jeremiah Donati, South Carolina AD

"He's done it at Oregon State, he's done it at Oregon, he's been huge parts of those rebuilds. Then to take Sacramento State to their first NCAA Tournament appearance, men's or women's, this guy just knows how to build programs."

Hailey Van Lith, TCU / Chicago Sky

"He has just breathed life into me. And from a life perspective, he's taught me a lot of great lessons about how to have healthy relationships and what it takes to have a healthy relationship, and how much better life can be if you just let people see who you are. And so for me to feel comfortable and safe doing that with him, that took a lot of work on his part that he did not have to do. I'm forever grateful for him, and God put him in my life to transform it."

Sedona Prince, TCU

"He's been such an amazing leader to me. He's been so patient with me. He's witnessed my journey for many years. He knows the kind of trial I've been put through and experienced throughout my college career. I will forever be grateful for him. Truly he's an amazing human, amazing coach and he is the reason for my career, truly."

Mike Buddie, TCU Athletic Director

"He has made an unbelievable impact on our players, and competitively by bringing TCU its first Big 12 Championships as well as growing the sport's popularity within our campus and Fort Worth communities. Coach Campbell has made TCU a brand name in women's college basketball and a program that has earned its spot among the nation's elite."

Olivia Miles, TCU

"Coach Mark Campbell is one of the greatest in the game. He has a very direct plan for me and for our team. I just want to be a pro without being a pro. Everyday on campus, I want to act and be the way a pro would be, so when I do actually go to the league."

David Patrick, LSU Men's Basketball Assistant Coach

"He still has that same personal relationship with them even though he's the boss. I could see right away just how the ladies that played for him gravitated towards him and his staff. He coached them hard, he coached them with tough love and it showed up on the basketball court."

CAMPBELL'S JOURNEY TO TCU

SUMMERTIME, 2005
Campbell returned home to the pacific northwest to begin his coaching career. Campbell accepted his "dream job" at Clackamas Community College in Oregon City, Oregon. Campbell served in a volunteer assistant coaching role for two seasons while running an elite Nike EYBL team. He took the job in part out of a desire to "give back to that group of kids that are at community colleges."

JULY 22, 2010
Campbell pivotted to the women's game even after earning a coveted position as a men's assistant coach at St. Mary's under Randy Bennett. He moved back to the pacific northwest shortly after his oldest daughter, Maley, was born to take an assistant coaching gig with Oregon State women's basketball, a program that had only one scholarship player on its roster upon his arrival. "In hindsight," Campbell said, "it was an amazing opportunity to go cut your teeth and try to dig out of a deep, deep hole at Oregon State, where they had no tradition and limited resources and facilities."

MAY 22, 2013
Campbell was elevated from assistant coach to associate head coach at Oregon State after initiating a program renaissance. Then three years into his stay in Corvallis, Campbell helped return the Beavers to the postseason behind a WNIT appearance during the 2011-2012 campaign and assembled a pair of nationally-ranked recruiting classes that forged the core of Oregon State's Final Four squad in 2016.

APRIL 14, 2014
After leading Oregon State to the round of 32 in the 2014 NCAA Tournament, Campbell left Corvallis for an assistant coaching position on Kelly Graves' Oregon Ducks staff. He was promoted to associate head coach the following season and spent his final six years in Eugene in the role.

MARCH 31, 2019
Behind a No. 3 overall recruiting class in 2016 that Campbell assembled, Oregon defeated Mississippi State 88-84 in the Elite 8 of the 2019 NCAA Tournament to reach its first-ever Final Four. Campbell then lead the charge on the recruiting trail in the offseason, helping Oregon ink the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 2020. Oregon signed five players who were consensus top-25 recruits and McDonalds All-Americans.

APRIL 16, 2021
Already established as a rising star in the college women's basketball coaching ranks, Campbell was ready to helm his own program. Campbell accepted the head coaching position at Sacramento State following a fourth straight NCAA Tournament run at Oregon. He became the sixth head coach in Sacramento State's Division I era.

NOVEMBER 14, 2021
Campbell entered the winner's circle for the first time as a head coach. Sacramento State defeated San Jose State 75-65 in Campbell's inaugural game inside "The Nest," which has served as home base for the Hornets since 1955.

FEBRUARY 27, 2023
A journey that began 22 months earlier culuminated with a trip to the top of the Big Sky Conference. Campbell's Hornets clinched a share of the Big Sky regular season championship for the first time ever behind an 80-54 rout of Portland State.

MARCH 8, 2023
Campbell punched his seventh ticket to the Big Dance, as the Hornets defeated Northern Arizona 76-63 to win the Big Sky Tournament and notch their first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

MARCH 21, 2023
A lifelong west coaster, Campbell was ready to dust off his cowboy boots and venture tothe Lone Star State for a return to the Power Five ranks. TCU Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Jeremiah Donati announced Campbell's hire as the eighth head coach in TCU women's basketball history.

XAVIER LOPEZ

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON

When the 2025-26 season begins, Xavier Lopez will start his third year as the associate head coach of TCU women's basketball.

Lopez, who goes by Xavi (Cha-vee), has spent 11 straight seasons alongside TCU head coach Mark Campbell, including four straight in an associate head coaching role. He served as Campbell's associate head coach during their two-year tenure at Sacramento State from 2021-23. Prior to venturing to northern California, Lopez worked in tandem with Campbell for seven seasons at Oregon, the last four as an assistant coach.

Dubbed by Campbell as "the best international recruiter in women's basketball," Lopez chairs the Horned Frogs' international recruiting efforts and oversees the program's offensive strategy.

"I am thrilled to have Xavi as my associate head coach," Campbell said. "With an incredible network overseas, he is the best international recruiter in women's basketball. Xavi has an incredible basketball mind that sees the offensive game in a unique way, but more importantly, he is a relationship builder. He is a great mentor to these young women."

TCU (2023-Present)

Lopez has been a lynchpin behind the greatest turnaround in college women's basketball ahead of his third season in Funky Town. His contributions have enabled TCU to boost its combined year-over win differential by and NCAA-leading 26 games since 2023. Just two years removed from an 8-23 season, Lopez helped lead TCU to a 34-4 overall record in 2024-25. Lopez and Campbell won their ninth and 10th conference championships together, sweeping the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles, and notched their fourth shared Elite Eight appearance. TCU earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's first berth in the Big Dance in 15 seasons, and became the first Horned Frog men's or women's basketball team to advance to the second weekend.

His deep understanding of the offensive side of the sport is evident in TCU's metrics. With Lopez leading the way, TCU is the only D1 program ranking in the top-10 nationwide in 3-point field goals (3rd, 666), 3-point field goals per game (5th, 9.4) and 3-point percentage (6th, .372) over the last two seasons. The Frogs drained an NCAA-leading 354 threes in 2024-25 while their net total of 666 in Lopez's first two seasons is the most ever by a Big 12 team in a two-year period. TCU's offensive valuations have grown exponentially under Lopez and Campbell. Synergy Basketball graded the Frogs' 2024-25 offense as the third-most efficient in all of D1. Last season also saw TCU score 74 points per game vs. Big 12 opposition after averaging 62.2 in 2023-24. The +11.8 points per game increase in league play was the sixth-largest in all of Division I basketball.

Individually, Lopez has helped recruit and coach five All-Americans, five conference players of the year and five WNBA first round draft picks throughout his coaching career, including Hailey Van Lith, the 2025 Big 12 Player of the Year and a consensus All-American. His recruiting efforts have helped TCU land 18 transfer portal players in the last three cycles, a group that includes Van Lith, fellow all-Big 12 players Madison Conner and Sedona Prince and three-time All-American Olivia Miles among other standouts.

The 2024-25 campaign saw Lopez and TCU shatter nearly every major program record or statistical milestone. The Frogs set TCU basketball records for total wins (34), home wins (21) and ranked wins (nine) and achieved their highest AP Top 25 ranking ever, slotting in at No. 6 in the final poll. TCU broke its 2023-24 program record for 3-pointers (354) and also shattered its previous single-season marks for assists (688), assists per game (18.6) and points scored (2,914) among countless other feats.

Across the college basketball landscape, Lopez influenced one of the nation's most lethal and multi-faceted offenses. TCU finished as one of only three teams ranking in the top 10 in assists (5th, 696) assist-to-turnover ratio (6th, 1.53) and assists per game (8th, 18.6) in all of D1. The Hroned Frogs dished out at least 20 dimes in nearly half of its games (16-of-38). From behind the arc, TCU reached double figures in 3-pointers in 18 games, the second-most of any team, and was the only squad in the NCAA Tournament field boasting five players with at least 40 makes from distance.

Lopez helped coach the nation's third-highest scoring trio in 2024-25 in the form of Van Lith (17.9 ppg), Prince (17.6 ppg) and Conner (14.6 ppg), who netted a combined 50.1 points per game. He helped mentor Van Lith into the first player to win Big 12 Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year accolades in the same season, developed Prince into a Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist and saw Conner join the duo on the All-Big 12 first team. Van Lith went on to become the fifth WNBA first round draft pick Lopez has worked with, going 11th overall to the Chicago Sky, whole Conner was taken in the third round by the Seattle Storm.

It became evident TCU landed a rising star in the profession just weeks into Lopez's first season at TCU.

Despite touching down in Fort Worth in April 2023 at the apex of recruiting season, Lopez helped assemble the top-ranked transfer class in the Big 12 and No. 11 overall class in the nation in the On3.com team transfer portal index. His recruiting efforts led to TCU landing Prince, Conner and consensus five-star point guard Jaden Owens. Following the conclusion of portal season, Lopez was named one of the nation's "50 Most Impactful High Major Assistants" by Silver Waves Media.

Lopez guided TCU to a 21-12 overall record, season-high AP top-25 ranking of 23rd and a second round appearance in the WBIT in 2023-24. With Lopez aiding the scout for all 33 opponents, TCU enjoyed a record-breaking 14-0 start to the season and produced the largest year-over-year win improvement (13 games) and winning percentage differential (.399) of any Power Six conference program. In total, 11 of the Horned Frogs' 21 victories came at the expense of top-100 teams in the NCAA NET Rankings.

He brought the spread pick-n-roll east from northern California, and the offensive formation paid immediate dividends. TCU averaged 81 points per game, led the nation in 3-point percentage differential (.170) and was third among all D1 programs in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.81) over its first 15 contests.

A rash of midseason injuries prompted open tryouts and forced Lopez to implement an entirely new offense, the 5-out motion. Despite having never previously ran the scheme, Lopez's contributions saw TCU average 10.4 threes per night and join National Champion South Carolina as one of only two teams ranking in the top-25 in 3-point percentage offense and defense over eight games. TCU went on to win five of its final seven ballgames in the regular season, slowly reinstalling the spread pick-n-roll.

With Lopez as TCU's offensive guru, TCU finished the year as one of only two teams to rank in the top-10 nationally in 3-pointers, 3-point percentage and 3-point percentage differential. Lopez also aided TCU in breaking school records for 3-pointers (312) and season assist average (16.7). TCU finished with the third-best 3-pointers per game average (9.5) in Big 12 history. Game-by-game, the Horned Frogs reached double figures in threes 16 times and produced an assist rate of 75 percent-or-better in 13 outings.

Sacramento State (2021-23)

Lopez helped facilitate one of the biggest two-year turnarounds in Division I basketball in his time at Sac State. He and Campbell inherited a program that concluded the 2020-2021 campaign 3-22 overall. With Lopez serving as the Hornets' top assistant coach, the program enjoyed an 11-game year-over win improvement the following season. Lopez then spearheaded a season of firsts for Sac State in 2022-2023, guiding the Hornets to a school record 25 wins and the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

At Sac State, Lopez again oversaw the spread pick-n-roll, which was one of the nation's most efficient offenses. Last season, the Hornets led the NCAA in pick-n-rolls and finished 10th nationally in field goal percentage (46.5) and fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (38.5).

Oregon (2015-21)

Lopez played an integral role in leading Oregon to its most successful era on the hardwood. His time on the bench saw the Ducks notch five straight NCAA Tournament appearances, capture three Pac-12 regular season championships and two conference tournament titles and advance to the Final Four in 2019 for the first time in program history.

While in Eugene, Lopez assisted with scouting and recruiting, including leading the Ducks' international recruiting efforts. Under his watch, the Ducks were able to recruit Germany's Satou Sabally, the No. 2 overall pick in the 2020 WNBA draft, and Spain's Maite Cazorla, the 23rd overall pick in 2019, to the pacific northwest.

Lopez also worked directly with the Oregon guards, overseeing a squad that led the nation in 3-point shooting in 2018-19, hitting 41.5 percent of its 3-point attempts, while ranking fourth in overall shooting at 50.1 percent.

Personal

Before transitioning to the coaching world, Lopez played professionally in Spain for six years for the Bilbao Basket in the prestigious ACB Spanish League among other clubs.

Prior to his professional career, Lopez competed collegiately at Chemeketa Community College in Salem, Oregon and at Point Loma Nazarene in San Diego, from which he graduated in 2007.

He and his wife, Megan, reside in Fort Worth with their daughter, Katie.

MINYON MOORE

ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON

Minyon Moore, a rising star in the coaching ranks and former three-time All-Pac-12 defensive team guard, is entering her third year as an assistant women's basketball coach at TCU ahead of the 2025-26 season.

Moore, whose first name is pronounced "min-yawn," has mentored under TCU head coach Mark Campbell for five years, including the last four as an assistant coach. She served as an assistant on his staff at Sacramento State from 2021-23 and played for Campbell and TCU associate head coach Xavier Lopez at Oregon during the 2019-20 campaign.

At TCU, Moore works directly with the Horned Frogs' guards and oversees the team's defensive strategy.

TCU (2023-Present)

Moore's contributions have catapulted TCU into the national mainstream. With Moore on the sideline, TCU has spiked its combined year-over win differential by and NCAA-leading 26 games since 2023. She arrived in Fort Worth alongside Campbell on the heels of an 8-23 season. Fast forward two years and Moore and Co. twice cut down the conference championship nets, sweeping the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles, and helped guide the Horned Frogs to the NCAA Elite eight. TCU finished with a 34-4 overall record and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's first berth in the Big Dance in 15 seasons, and became the first Horned Frog men's or women's basketball team to advance to the second weekend

Moore has continually tightened TCU's defensive alignment across her two seasons along Stadium Dr. Ahead of the 2025-26 campaign, TCU and Moore have prevented 50 teams from making at least six 3-pointers and limited 44 opponents from connecting at or above a 40 percent clip from the field. Just 31 percent (49-of-61) of TCU's opponents have shot better than 33 percent behind the arc opposite the Frogs' defense.

While simultaneously shattering nearly ever major offensive school record in 2024-25, TCU quietly became one of the country's more robust defensive unis. Last season, the Frogs were one of only seven teams at the D1 level scoring at least 77 points per game while surrendering 58-or-fewer. TCU limited 25-of-38 opponents to five-or-fewer deep balls, allowing just 4.8 makes from downtown per night, and held teams to less than 20 points in a half a school record 13 games. The Frogs ranked second in the Big 12 in points allowed per game (57.6) and field goal percentage defense (.368) and boasted the nation's fourth-best blocks per game average (.5.9).

TCU emit in full across the national radar as "3-and-D U" in 2023-24, and Moore's efforts played a large hand in the Horned Frogs' proficiency at both sides of the court. With Moore setting TCU's defensive sets in tandem with Campbell, the Horned Frogs kept 27 of 33 opponents under their season scoring average, limited 24 teams to no better than 33 percent shooting from behind the arc, surrendered six-or-fewer threes in 22 games and held 20 teams below a 40 percent clip from the field. At the conclusion of the regular season, TCU and National Champion South Carolina were the only squads in the country ranking in the top-25 in 3-point percentage offense and defense. Moore's schemes also saw TCU rank second in the Big 12 and in the top-30 nationally in field goal percentage defense (36.9) and blocks per game (4.9) at season's end.

Moore helped TCU enjoy the greatest turnaround season of any Power Six conference program, boosting the Horned Frogs' win tally by 13 games after inheriting a team that finished 8-23 overall and 1-17 in Big 12 play the season prior. With Moore on the sidelines, TCU finished the 2023-24 season with a 21-12 overall record, achieved a season-high AP top-25 ranking of No. 23 and advanced to the second round of the WBIT for the program's first postseason berth in five years. Together, she and Campbell have produced a combined 35-game year-over-year win improvment in three shared seasons on the bench.

Sacramento State (2021-23)

While working alongside Campbell and Lopez at Sac State, Moore's first two years on the bench proved nothing short of spectacular. Together, the trio pioneered the Hornets to a series of program firsts. With Moore's leadership, Sac State won a school record 25 games in 2022-2023 and earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. The Hornets also won a share of their first Big Sky regular season championship and first Big Sky Tournament title. The 25 victories marked the first 20-win season in program history and were also the most ever by a Sacramento State men's or women's basketball team.

In 2021-22, Moore helped facilitate an 11-game year-over-year win improvement, tied for the nation's seventh-best turnaround, at Sac State after inheriting a program that went 3-22 the previous season.

Individually, Moore helped coach four players to All-Big Sky honors, including conference players of the year Lianna Tillman (2021-22) and Kahlaijah Dean (2022-23).

Moore was honored as one of the nation's "50 Most Impactful Mid-Major Assistants" by Silver Waves Media ahead of the Hornets' record-setting 2022-23 campaign.

Playing Career

Moore got her start in the Division I coaching ranks on the strength of a standout playing career that spanned two Pac-12 stops. She played three seasons for USC from 2016-2019, twice earning All-Pac-12 Defensive team honors, before transferring to Oregon for her final year. While in Eugene and playing for Campbell, Moore helped lead the Ducks to a sweep of the Pac-12 regular season and tournament titles. She was named to the Pac-12 All-Defensive team for the third time in her career. Moore was also part of a dominant Ducks team that seemed destined for a national championship before the season was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Originally from Hercules, California, Moore played her prep basketball at and graduated from Salesian High School in Richmond, California, where she helped her team win the 2015 North Coast Section Division IV Championship and was named the North Coach Section Scholar Athlete of the Year.

While in high school, Moore also played AAU for the Cal Stars, winning a Nike EYBL national title alongside former Cal Stars and Oregon teammate Sabrina Ionescu in 2015.

Personal

Moore completed her bachelor's degree in communications at USC in 2019. She earned a master's degree in advertising and brand responsibility at Oregon the following year. Moore presently resides in nearby Aledo.

NIA JACKSON

ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON

Nia Jackson, a former All-Pac 10 player and emerging name in the college basketball coaching ranks, is entering her third year as an assistant women's basketball coach at TCU ahead of the 2025-26 season.

Jackson joined TCU head coach Mark Campbell's staff in April of 2023 after spending the 2022-23 campaign as an assistant coach at Grand Canyon. She previously enjoyed a year-long assistant coaching stint at Boise State. Prior to her tenure with the Broncos, Jackson served alongside Campbell and associate head coach Xavier Lopez for two seasons at Oregon as the Ducks' director of creativity. A star point guard at Oregon from 2008-2012, Jackson also worked with TCU assistant coach Minyon Moore, the Ducks' point guard in 2019-20.

"We are thrilled to have Nia on our coaching staff," Campbell said. "She is a tireless recruiter who has built relationships all across the country. She will work closely with Minyon in developing our guards. Nia is a rising star in the industry, and we are excited to have her with us."

TCU (2023-Present)

At TCU, Jackson coaches all position groups while working closely with the Horned Frogs guards. She also helps oversee all digital recruiting efforts and collaborates with the women's basketball SID/social media coordinator and creative content leads to develop on-brand projects that cater to the program's vision, including graphic design, photography and videography.

Jackson has helped mentor three All-Big 12 players, two All-Americans and two WNBA Draft picks in her two years on the bench at TCU, including 2025 Big 12 Player of the Year and Olympics bronze medalist Hailey Van Lith. She has also been a vital member of the greatest two-year turnaround in college basketball. With Jackson in tow, TCU won a school record 34 games in 2024-25 en route to a clean sweep of the Big 12 regular season and tournament championships and reached he Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. The Frogs finished an unbeaten 21-0 at home, downed nine ranked opponents and achieved the highest AP Top 25 ranking in TCU basketball history, checking in at No. 6 in the final poll. TCU earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and returned to the Big Dance for the first time in 15 years.

The 2024-25 campaign saw TCU affirm its place among college basketball's most efficient offices. TCU finished as one of only three teams ranking in the top 10 in assists (5th, 696) assist-to-turnover ratio (6th, 1.53) and assists per game (8th, 18.6) in all of D1. The Hroned Frogs dished out at least 20 dimes in nearly half of its games (16-of-38). From behind the arc, TCU reached double figures in 3-pointers in 18 games, the second-most of any team, and was the only squad in the NCAA Tournament field boasting five players with at least 40 makes from distance. Jackson helped coach the nation's third-highest scoring trio in 2024-25 in the form of Van Lith (17.9 ppg), Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist Sedona Prince (17.6 ppg) and All-Big 12 first teamer Madison Conner (14.6 ppg), who netted a combined 50.1 points per game. She helped mentor Van Lith into the first player to win Big 12 Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year accolades in the same season and saw Conner break her own single-season school record for 3-pointers (127).

An All-Pac-12 first team point guard in 2010, TCU boasted one of the nation's elite backcourts in 2023-24 in large part due to Jackson's skill development at the position. TCU's guards averaged 52.8 points per game over the course of a record-setting 14-0 start to the season. With Jackson lending her efforts to TCU's offensive strategy, the Horned Frogs averaged 81 points per game, led the nation in 3-point percentage differential (.170) and were third among all D1 programs in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.81) three games into conference play.

Individually, Jackson coached Conner to All-Big 12 second team accolades and saw the 5-11 sharpshooter set the NCAA record for most 3-pointers in a 10-game stretch to start a season (52) and knock down a then-school record 100 threes. Jackson's efforts also saw Jaden Owens rank in the top-five nationally in assists (3rd, 115) and assist-to-turnover ratio (5th, 2.67) through 18 games. Agnes Emma-Nnpopu more than doubled her year-over scoring and rebounding per game averages to 10.7 points and 7.2 rebounds per game, respectively, and Una Jovanovic concluded the season ranked second in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.11) through Jackson's influence.

Jackson helped guide TCU to a 21-12 overall record, season-high AP top-25 ranking of 23rd and a second round appearance in the WBIT in 2023-24.

Grand Canyon (2022-23)

Jackson helped GCU further manifest itself as a premier mid-major program during her stay in Phoenix. GCU concluded the 2022-23 season with a 21-10 overall record and 12-6 mark in Western Athletic Conference play with Jackson in an assistant coaching role.

GCU again boasted one of the nation's toughest pressure defenses in part due to Jackson's work with the Lopes' guards. The Lopes ranked fourth nationally in steals per game (12.7), ninth in turnovers forced per game (21.3) and 29th in turnover margin (4.3).

Boise State (2021-22)

Success in the win-loss column has followed Jackson at each stop along her coaching journey. At Boise State, she augmented the Broncos' current streak of 10 consecutive winning seasons. Jackson guided Boise State to a 14-9 record in a 2020-21.

Oregon (2018-20)

Jackson teamed up with Campbell to lead her alma mater to its greatest era. She and Campbell had the Ducks on the precipice of a national championship run in 2019-2020 before the season was cancelled due to COVID-19. The Ducks finished the regular season with a 31-2 overall record and swept the Pac-12 regular season and tournament championships. Her first year with Campbell saw Oregon claim its second-of-three Pac-12 regular season titles and notch its first-ever Final Four appearance.

She worked closely with five WNBA draft picks during her second tour of duty in Eugene, including Sabrina Ionescu and Satou Sabally, the top-two picks in the 2020 draft, and Maite Cazorla, the 23rd overall pick in 2019.

Loyola Marymount (2014-18)

Jackson cut her teeth in the coaching world via a four-year stay at Loyola Marymount from 2014-2018. She served as the Lions' director of operation ns for three seasons before being elevated into an assistant coaching role in 2017.

Playing Career

A native of Seattle, Jackson scored more than 1,000 points during her playing career at Oregon. She still ranks in the program's all-time top-10 records list for career assists (355) and steals (104). Jackson was twice chosen as the Ducks' Most Valuable Player and battled through knee injuries to receive All-Pac 12 first team accolades as a senior in 2012. She played professionally in Finland before knee injuries forced her to retire.

Personal

Jackson earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Oregon in 2011. She presently resides in Fort Worth.

NOLAN WILSON

ASSISTANT COACH | SECOND SEASON

Nolan Wilson, one of the brightest up-and-coming coaches in college basketball, will start his second season as an assistant women's basketball coach at TCU in 2025-26.

A rising star in the profession, Wilson has coached at the highest levels of the sport ahead of his ninth year on the bench. He arrived in Fort Worth on the heels of a three-year run at Washington, where he spent two seasons as the Huskies' director of analytics and scouting before being elevated into an assistant coaching role in 2023-24. Originally from Laredo, Texas, Wilson's resume also reaches the NBA and WNBA. He spent a season with the Dallas Mavericks in 2019-20 and worked as an advanced scout for the Washington Mystics in conjunction with his tenure at Washington.

The addition of Wilson added to the Horned Frogs' deep recruiting connections. Wilson played an instrumental role in the Huskies assembling back-to-back nationally ranked recruiting classes from 2023-2024, including a 2024 class that was graded 14th overall by ESPNW. His first recruiting cycle at TCU in the spring of 2025 culminated with the addition of three-time All-American Olivia Miles and a six-player class that featured three players ranked in the top-25 of ESPN's transfer portal rankings; Miles, stretch forward Marta Suarez and 6-7 center Clara Silva.

Wilson has helped lead three teams to the NCAA Tournament over the course of his coaching career, most recently the 2024-25 TCU team that advanced to the Elite Eight and swept the Big 12 regular season and conference championships. He has coached five all-conference players in the last two seasons leading into the 2025-26 campaign.

A former two-sport D1 athlete, Wilson coaches all position groups while paying special attention to TCU's posts and the program's defensive strategy. In June of 2024, Wilson was recognized as one of the country's "50 Most Impactful High Major Assistants" by Silver Waves Media, an honor fellow TCU assistants Xavier Lopez and Minyon Moore have also received. Minyon Moore have also received.

TCU (2024-Present)

Wilson returned to his home state in August of 2024 following a conversation with TCU head coach Mark Campbell regarding an assistant coaching role. His arrival helped spearhead the greatest TCU men's or women's basketball season in school history and biggest turnaround in college basketball.

With Wilson patrolling the sidelines, TCU won a school record 34 games, finished an unbeaten 21-0 at home, downed nine ranked opponents and achieved the highest AP Top 25 ranking in TCU basketball history, checking in at No. 6 in the final poll. The Frogs earned a No. 2 seed in the Big Dance and returned to the Big Dance for the first time in 15 years. Notably, Wilson enabled TCU to become one of only two teams in Big 12 history to capture a league title within two seasons of finishing in last place. TCU improved its year-over win total by an NCAA-leading 13 games for the second straight season just two years after posting an 8-23 record.

Wilson also saw TCU enjoy the largest increase of conference victories (12) in all of D1 basketball.

Wilson played an invaluable role in helping develop Sedona Prince into a Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist, unanimous All-Big 12 first team selection, All-Big 12 defensive team honoree and honorable mention All-American. He also coached Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Year Hailey Van Lith along with fellow All-Big 12 first team player Madison Conner.

Washington (2021-24)

Wilson helped Washington earn four victories over AP top-25 opponents in 2023-24, including three on the road, and earn a No. 1 seed in the WBIT. The Huskies produced a 35-30 combined overall record in Wilson's final two seasons on Montlake. His tenure at Washington also included a WNIT semifinal run in 2022-23.

Individually, Wilson coached Dalayah Daniels to consecutive All-Pac-12 honorable mention accolades and developed Sayvia Sellers into a Pac-12 All-Freshman team talent.

Rice (2018-19, 2020-21)

Before venturing to the pacific northwest, Wilson enjoyed separate stints at Rice in 2018-19 and 2020-21. He first served as the Owls' assistant scouting and recruiting director. Wilson's second go-around in Houston saw him receive an assistant coaching position. In 2019-20, Wilson assisted in recruiting efforts, organized and edited film, evaluated the Owls' opponents and crafted scouting reports. His contributions helped Rice win 28 games and finish a perfect 16-0 in the Conference USA. Wilson's return in 2020-21 vaulted the Owls to a third consecutive Conference USA title and the WNIT championship.

Dallas Mavericks / Washington Mystics

At the professional level, Wilson scouted play calls for each possession in his work with the Mystics. He also diagrammed set and call frequencies for every player while assisting with player personnel tendencies and postgame reports.

Wilson was an assistant coach in player development for the Mavericks. There, he trained players such as NBA All-Star Kristaps Porzingis, Tim Hardaway Jr. and Seth Curry. He also simulated scout offense and defense and utilized RSPCT shot progression software to collect statistical shot-tracking data in his role.

Prairie View A&M (2013-18)

Wilson first forayed into coaching at his alma matter, Prairie View A&M, as a graduate assistant in 2017-18.

He was a two-sport standout for the Panthers, playing as both a forward for the basketball team and a defensive end in football. Wilson graduated with a bachelor of business administration and management degree in 2017 and completed his MBA at Prairie View in 2020.

Personal

Wilson's wife, the former Maya Hawkins, was the starting point guard for Rice all four years from 2013-17. She graduated as the Owls' school record holder in 3-pointers and free throw percentage and currently serves as a character coach and leadership mentor with the TCU Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Together, they have a son, Maceo, and are excitedly expecting a second child in December.

JESSIE CRAIG

ASSISTANT COACH / AD FOR OPERATIONS | THIRD SEASON

Jessie Craig is in her third season with TCU women's basketball, serving in a dual role of assistant coach and director of operations.

Craig's chief responsibilities include on-court coaching for all position groups, serving as the program's compliance liaison, and streamlining the day-to-day operations of the program. Craig is also the team travel coordinator and budget manager, liaison to the TCU Frog Club and equipment staff, and oversees the roles and responsibilities of team managers.

With Craig on the sidelines, TCU has enjoyed the greatest turnaround in college basketball. In 2024-25, Craig helped lead TCU to a sweep of the Big 12 regular season and tournament championships, a No. 2 overall seed and run to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament, a school record 34 victories and final AP Top 25 ranking of No. 6. Craig was an integral member of the first TCU men's or women's basketball coaching staff to win a Big 12 basketball title and to reach the second weekend of the NCAA Tournament. Her first season in Fort Worth saw TCU boost its win tally by 13 games after finishing 8-23 overall and 1-17 in Big 12 play the year prior. TCU concluded the 2023-24 season with a 21-12 overall record, achieved a season-high AP top-25 ranking of No. 23 and advanced to the second round of the WBIT for the program's first postseason berth in five years.

She has mentored three All-Big 12 players and two All-Americans in her two seasons with the Horned Frogs, including 2024 Olympian and Big 12 Player of the Year Hailey Van Lith. Craig's contributions have helped TCU land the nation's most sought after players in the transfer portal. TCU has signed 18 portal players following Craig and TCU head coach Mark Campbell's arrival, a group that includes Van Lith, fellow All-Americans Olivia Miles and Sedona Prince and 2025 WNBA Draft third round draft pick Madison Conner.

A 10-year coaching veteran of the sport, Craig came to TCU following a yearlong stint as an assistant coach at NCAA Division II Regis University. She previously spent five seasons on the bench at her alma mater, Alaska Fairbanks, serving as the Nanooks' interim head coach in 2021-2022.

Craig and Campbell first crossed paths during her tenure as the varsity girls basketball head coach at West Valley High School in Fairbanks, Alaska, from 2013-2017. There, she coached Ruthy Hebard, who starred at Oregon from 2017-2020 during Campbell's run as associate head coach. Campbell developed a relationship with Craig while recruiting Hebard before eventually mentoring the 6-4 forward into the No. 8 overall pick of the 2020 WNBA Draft.

Craig helped return Regis to the pinnacle of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) during her stay in Colorado. With Craig serving as the Rangers' lead assistant coach, Regis concluded the 2022-2023 campaign with a 25-7 overall record and 19-3 mark in league play. The Rangers swept the RMAC regular season and tournament championships for the first time since 2006-2007 on their way to earning the No. 3 overall seed in the South Central Regional of the NCAA Tournament.

Individually, Craig coached four players to postseason All-RMAC accolades, including guard Erin Fry, who received All-South Central Region first team and WBCA All-American honorable mention citations.

Throughout her tenure at Alaska Fairbanks, Craig leant her efforts to all aspects of team operations in addition to her coaching duties. She was responsible for player development and opponent scouting while also spearheading the Nanooks' strength and conditioning program.

The Nanooks also shined in the classroom with Craig in the program's coaching fold. Alaska Fairbanks saw 23 players earn Great Northwest Athletic Conference All-Academic honors throughout Craig's five years on the sidelines. While acting as the program's interim head coach, the Nanooks posted a 3.60 cumulative grade point average for the 2021-2022 academic year.

Craig broke into coaching at the high school level in her hometown at West Valley. She produced a 78-27 prep head coaching record over her four years at West Valley, leading the team to a trio of state championship tournaments and a runner-up finish in 2014-2015.

Her run at West Valley overlapped with an assistant coaching role with the Lathrop High School boys varsity basketball team from 2010-2014. Craig helped Lathrop win three regional championships and notch three state tournament appearances.

A Fairbanks, Alaska native, Craig enjoyed a four-year playing career for Alaska Fairbanks from 2007-2011 before transitioning to the coaching ranks. She earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering in 2011.

Adeola Akomolafe is in her 10th season with TCU women's basketball and third as the program's director of recruiting operations and student athlete development.

Akomolafe, who goes by "Ola," is the first person to hold the role under head coach Mark Campbell.

Her name is one Horned Frog fans and TCU women's basketball alumna are plenty familiar with. The El Paso native was a five-year letter winner for the Horned Frogs from 2015-2020 and still holds the school record for games played (135). She completed a two-year appointment as a graduate assistant for TCU women's basketball from 2021-23 and was elevated into a full-time position by Campbell following his hire.

"We are thrilled to have Ola as a member of our staff," Campbell said. "She has been amazing in helping all of us transition to TCU. She played here, obtained her master's degree from TCU, and she absolutely loves everything about TCU. Ola has a fantastic work ethic and we are lucky and excited to have her as part of our coaching staff."

Akomolafe serves as the program's video coordinator, a liaison to the TCU equipment and academic services staffs, aids in opponent scouting and oversees on-campus recruiting in her current role.

Over her decade in Funky Town, Akomolafe has helped elevate TCU women's basketball to the pinnacle of the sport. She helped guide TCU to its first Big 12 basketball championships and an Elite Eight run in 2024-25 and has been a member of five postseason squads. With her responsibilities as TCU's director of on-campus recruiting, Akomolafe has been a key figure in the Horned Frogs' ability to sign the nation's most touted transfer portal classes, groups that include 2025 Big 12 Player of the Year Hailey Van Lith, fellow All-Americans Olivia Miles and Sedona Prince, and WNBA Draft pick Madison Conner.

As a graduate assistant for TCU women's basketball, Akomolafe had oversight of practice film and stat analysis. She was also responsible for opponent scouting, managed practice and game day operations and served as a point person between the program and TCU athletics administration.

Akomolafe was a focal point on the pioneering TCU women's basketball teams that began the program's transition to the Big 12. During her playing career, Akomolafe helped the Horned Frogs win 99 games and notch a trio of WNIT berths across her half decade on the hardwood. She guided the Horned Frogs to consecutive WNIT semifinal appearances in 2018 and 2019. The following year, Akomolafe averaged a career-best 5.4 points and 5.3 rebounds per outing while making 28 starts on a Horned Frogs squad that placed second outright in the Big 12 and was destined to return to the NCAA Tournament before the postseason was cancelled due to COVID-19.

For her career, Akomolafe suited up in a single-season record 135 contests in purple and white and earned the starting nod on 81 occasions. She concluded her run on the frog-scaled Schollmaier Arena court with 508 rebounds, 490 points, 162 assists and 78 blocks. Akomolafe earned Preseason All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades as a senior in 2018-2019 and was an Academic All-Big 12 honoree in three seasons.

Akomolafe completed her bachelor's degree in movement science from TCU in 2020. She obtained a master's degree in educational leadership with an emphasis in higher education from TCU in 2023.

TEAM NOTABLES

- TCU has signed 18 transfer players under Mark Campbell, six in each of his three recruiting cycles.
- TCU lost 78 percent of its scoring (2,270 points) and 70 percent of its minutes played (5,307) from 2024-25 to graduation or the transfer portal.
- Six players on the Horned Frogs roster made at least 20 starts and averaged 20-plus minutes per game in 2024-25; Kennedy Basham, Taylor Bigby, Donovyn Hunter, Olivia Miles, Veronica Sheffey and Marta Suarez.
- Five Frogs enter the 2025-26 season with at least 50 career starts; Miles (95), Maddie Scherr (87), Suarez (80), Sheffey (63), Hunter (55). Basham has earned the starting nod on 49 occasions.
- Entering the 2025-26 campaign, TCU is the only program ranking in the top-10 nationwide in 3-point field goals (3rd, 666), 3-point field goals per game (5th, 9.4) and 3-point percentage (6th, .372) over the last two seasons.
- The Horned Frogs led the nation in 3-pointers in 2024-25 with 354. Their net total of 666 from 2023-25 are the most ever by a Big 12 team in a two-year period.
- The Horned Frogs lead college basketball in returning 3-point offense for the second straight season. Among qualified players, TCU's roster averaged 11.4 threes per game in 2024-25. Four Frogs drained at least 1.5 three's per night last season; Miles (2.1), Bigby (1.9) Aaliyah Roberson (2.4) and Taliyah Parker (1.6).
- TCU will become only the eighth program in D1 college women's basketball history to knock down 1,000-or-more 3-pointers in a three-year span should it convert 334 attempts from deep this season. The others are DePaul, Florida Gulf Coast, Idaho, Iowa Oregon, Sacramento State and St. Francis.
- Synergy Basketball graded the Frogs' 2024-25 offense as the third-most efficient in all of D1.
- TCU scored 74 points per game vs. Big 12 opposition in 2024-25 after averaging 62.2 the season prior. The +11.8 points per game increase in league play was the sixth-largest nationwide.
- TCU is 27-0 over the past two seasons when scoring 80-plus, good for the fourth-best record in America. The only programs with better marks are South Carolina (39-0), USC (32-0) and UNLV (29-0).
- TCU's roster will likely feature four 1,000-point scorers. Miles (1,430) has ticked the box while Suarez (977), Sheffey (880) and Scherr (859) are on pace to eclipse the threshold in nonconference play.
- The Horned Frogs are the only team in the nation with four players 6-7-or taller. Their average height is 6'2 1/2" (74.5 inches).
- TCU's 24-game home winning streak is the third longest in the country, trailing only Florida Gulf Coast (37 games) and NC State (35 games).
- The Horned Frogs' combined 26-game year-over win improvement over the last two seasons is the largest of any Power Conference team.
- TCU ranks third nationally in games with double digit 3-pointers (34) since 2023.
- Under Campbell, TCU has held 59 of 69 opponents (84 percent) under their season scoring average, including 31 of 37 in 2024-25.
- The Frogs have dished out at least 20 assists in 26 games under Campbell, tied for the ninth-most of any team since 2023.
- TCU finished last season as one of only three teams ranking in the top 10 in assists (5th, 696) assist-to-turnover ratio (6th, 1.53) and assists per game (8th, 18.6) in all of D1.
- TCU is aiming to become the first program Big 12 history to win two league titles within three seasons of finishing in last place. The Horned Frogs will join Baylor, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech as the only repeat conference champions.
- Excluding first-year players, nine of the 11 members of TCU's roster played in the 2025 NCAA Tournament.
- The Horned Frogs have topped the Power Conference ranks in year-over win improvement in each of Campbell's two seasons at the helm, spiking their win tally by 13 games both times.
- TCU saw two program alumnae make a WNBA roster for the first time in the same season this summer, as Hailey Van Lith ('25) and Amy Okonkwo ('19) competed for the Chicago Sky and Dallas Wings.

INDIVIDUAL NOTABLES

Olivia Miles
- The 5-10 graduate student is the most accomplished point guard in college basketball. Miles enters her final season as the only returning player who has tallied at least 1,400 career points, 600 assists and 600 rebounds.
- Miles enters the 2025-26 season as the active D1 leader in career assists per game average (6.5), career assists (654) and triple doubles (six).
- She is also the lone D1 player with at least 25 career double-doubles and five triple-doubles.
- Miles has maintained a 2-1 assist-to-turnover ratio for the entirety of her career.
- Miles is contending to become the fourth transfer point guard in five seasons to win a conference player of the year accolade under Campbell.
- Miles may also make TCU the first program in Big 12 history to produce the league's Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year in the same season. Hailey Van Lith swept the accolades in 2024-25.
- Miles is the only three-time All-American on a Big 12 roster entering this season.
- Miles first represented TCU at the FIBA AmeriCup in July, helping USA Basketball win gold. She was one of 12 collegians and two from the Big 12 selected to compete.
- Miles averaged 7.1 assists, 6.9 points and 5.3 rebounds per game while connecting at a 53 percent clip from the field. She led the tournament in assist per game average and total assists (50).

Clara Silva
- Silva is the heir apparent to former All-American center Sedona Prince. She established herself as one of the best amateur players in the world in July while competing for Portugal at the FIBA U19 World Cup.
- Silva was named Best Defensive Player and was one of five players selected to the All-Tournament team at the conclusion of the event.
- The 6-7 center averaged a near double-double of 23 points, 9.7 rebounds and 2.9 blocks per game
- The rising sophomore led the tournament in total blocks (20), blocks per game and efficiency rating (+25).
- Silva finished with a +43 efficiency valuation along with 37 points and 10 rebounds to lift Portugal to an 83-80 win over Israel in the round of 16. Her efficiency valuation was the second highest in FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup history while her 43 points were the most of any European in the competition since 1989.
- Her efforts guided Portugal to its first quarterfinal appearance in any FIBA event for men or women and either at the youth or senior level.
- Silva averaged 4.0 points, 2.6 rebounds, and 1.1 blocks across 12.5 minutes per game in 2024-25 at Kentucky.

Marta Suarez
- Suarez will help fill the void at the four left by Agnes Emma-Nnopu. Standing 6-3, Suarez can guard all five positions and play both inside and out offensively.
- She started every game across two seasons at Cal from 2023-25, averaging 12.9 points, 7.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game as a senior last year.
- Suarez scored in double figures in all-but-four games for the Golden Bears in 2024-25. She was one of 14 D1 forwards to shoot at least 46 percent from the field and 32 percent from distance.

Donovyn Hunter
- Hunter sports a 2.1 career assist-to-turnover ratio. She ranked ninth among all Big 12 guards in the category last season (1.81).
- She doubled her points and assists per game averages over the final 13 games of the 2024-25 season in TCU's run to the Elite Eight. She averaged 7.1 points and 3.8 assists per game with a 2.4 assist-to-turnover ratio. Hunter shot 44 percent from the field (35-79) in that span.
- She finished with an assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.0 or better on 11 occasions and in six of TCU's final 14 games last year.
- Hunter was invited to participate in the prestigious Nike Basketball Academy in August.

Maddie Scherr
- Scherr was cleared to resume all basketball activities in July after being sidelined for the entirety of the 2024-25 campaign with a back injury.
- She has earned 87 collegiate starts across her four seasons on the court at Oregon (2020-22) and Kentucky (2022-24). She averaged 12 points, five rebounds, 3.9 assists and 1.9 steals per game in 2024-25.
- Scherr was a member of Campbell's No. 1 ranked recruiting class in 2019 ahead of his final year at Oregon.
- Campbell likened Scherr to WD-40 in a recent interview, saying "she makes everything run smoother."

Taylor Bigby
- Bigby got the starting nod in 24 of TCU's first 26 games in her first year in Fort Worth in 2024-25.
- TCU was 12-0 last season when Bigby scored in double figures.
- Bigby averaged a career-high 8.2 points per game during nonconference play last season.
- She was one of six players selected to compete for USA Basketball 2025 3x3 U23 National Team at the U23 Nations League in July. Bigby's peer group included All-American Joyce Edwards (South Carolina), MiLaysia Fulwiley (LSU) and former All-Big 12 guard Serena Sundell (K-State).

The Rest of the Transfer Class
- Veronica Sheffey led San Diego State in scoring (11.2 ppg) in 2024-25 on their way to the NCAA Tournament.
- Sheffey scored in double figures 21 times. She increased her scoring average to 13 points per game and was a 44 percent shooter from behind the arc during conference play
- Kennedy Basham ranks second only to UCLA's Lauren Betts among all returning D1 players in total blocks (83) and blocks per game average (2.6) from last season.
- Taliyah Parker was graded the nation's No. 60 overall recruit and No. 6 player in Texas in the class of 2024 in the ESPN HoopGurlz rankings. She played 21 games for Texas A&M as a freshman before missing the remainder of the 2024-25 campaign due to injury.

The Freshmen
- Clara Bielefeld became the youngest player to ever compete for the German Senior National Team in June at age-17. She competed at the FIBA Women's EuroBasket Championship in June
- Bielefeld, 6-4, went on to help Germany finish as the vice champion at FIBA U18 Women's EuroBasket Division B in July. She averaged 10.9 rebounds, 8.9 points, 5.3 assists, 2.7 blocks and 2.4 steals per game.
- Standing 6'8 1/2", Sarah Portlock is the tallest player to ever sign with TCU and the third-tallest in all of Division I.
- Emily Hunter enrolled a semester early at TCU in January.
- Bielefeld, Portlock and Hunter comprise the first high school recruiting class Campbell has signed at TCU.

TCU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEEES

JANICE DZIUK | 1986-90

CLASS OF 2002

Career Highlights

At the time of her induction, Janice Dziuk was the greatest women's basketball player in TCU history. She led TCU women's basketball in career scoring and rebounding and has an award named after her (TCU Janice Dziuk Basketball Award) within the TCU Horned Frogs' program. The award is given annually to the player who exemplifies work ethic, determination, shows positive attitude and stresses the team concept. Dziuk was named to the Southwest Conference All-Decade Team for the 1980's, also garnering All-SWC First Team honors her senior year. She was a SWC Scholar-Athlete, the TCU Female Athlete of the Year and the TCU Pop Boone Outstanding Athlete of the Year in addition to serving as team captain her senior year.

SANDORA IRVIN | 2001-05

CLASS OF 2015

Career Highlights

One of the most decorated student-athletes in TCU history, Sandora Irvin was a two-time All-America honoree by the WBCA and AP, who was selected as the No. 3 overall pick in the 2005 WNBA Draft. Irvin, who previously held the NCAA Record for blocked shots in a career, was at one time TCU's all-time leader in points, rebounding and blocked shots. She was named to the Conference USA All-Decade team and was voted the league's Female Athlete of the Year in 2005.

ADRIANNE ROSS | 2004-08

CLASS OF 2018

Career Highlights

Ross was a two-time honorable mention All-American that led the women's basketball team on a run of four NCAA Tournament appearances. At the time of her induction, Ross led TCU in steals in a game, career steals, field goal attempts, games played, and ranked in the top-10 in almost every other major statistical category. Ross went on to play professionally overseas, including a stint in the WNBA with the San Antonio Silver Stars. She most recently played the 2017-18 season with the Lebanese team Al Riyadi of the EEWBL, where she averaged 10 points and 4.9 assists in 25 minutes per game.

JILL SUTTON | 1997-01

CLASS OF 2019

Career Highlights

Jill Sutton-Dodd joined TCU's Women's Basketball program in the late 1990's and made an immediate impact. She was the 1998 Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year and made the 1998 WAC All-Newcomer Team. A deadly three-point shooter, she once made eight 3's in a game as a freshman. As a three-time All-WAC selection in 1998, 1999 and 2001 she helped lead the Frogs to their first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001 under head coach Jeff Mittie. At the time of her induction, Sutton ranked third in games started, second all-time in three point shots made (296), and fourth in assists (445).

HELENA SVERRISDOTTIR | 2007-11

CLASS OF 2024

Career Highlights

Sverrisdottir was a four-time All-Mountain West Conference selection for the Horned Frogs from 2007-11, becoming the first women's basketball player in school history to earn three-straight First Team honors. She was named the MWC Freshman of the Year in 2007-08, only to later be named the league's Player of the Year following her junior campaign in 2009-10. She remains TCU's all-time leader in Player of the Week awards, earning the honor nine different times in her career. Sverrisdottir, who hails from Hafnarfjordur, Iceland, is the only player in school history to score at least 1,700 points, post at least 800 rebounds and tally 500 assists in a career.

Jaden Owens turned in five 10-assist performances during December of 2023. She became the first TCU player to dish out 10-plus assists in at least five games in a season.

30 POINTS / 15 REBOUNDS

Only four TCU players have totaled at least 30 points and 15 rebounds in the same game. Sedona Prince became the first Horned Frog to twice put up the stat line on Noc. 17, 2024 after posting a 31-point, 16-rebound double-double to lead TCU to a 76-73 victory over No. 13 NC State. Prince first achieved the feat during the 2023-24 season, finishing with 33 points and 16 boards against Army on Nov. 19, 2023. She is the first Frog in the Big 12 era to achieve the single-game milestone.

TRIPLE-DOUBLES

In the history of TCU women's basketball, only two Lady Frogs have ever notched a triple-double, doing so three times. Four opposing players have notched the rare achievement.
Sandora Irvin's triple-double against UAB is still the one of only two 15-15-15 performance in NCAA Division I history.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES

When it comes to double-doubles, no Lady Frog even compares to Sandora Irvin's record 65 in 127 games. During her junior year, she exploded for 23 in 30 games to lead Conference USA and ended the season with 15 consecutive double-double performances. As a senior, Irvin tacked on 20 more to her career total. Sedona Prince (29 in 58 games), Jordan Moore (22 in 133 games) and Janice Dziuk (22 in 106 games) are the next closest Frogs. Prince's 16 double-doubles in 2024-25 are the second-most in a season in program history. She tallied 13 double-doubles in 19 outings in 2023-24.

TCU IN NCAA RECORD BOOK

Sandora Irvin's name is etched throughout the NCAA record book, including atop the single-game blocks list where her 16-block performance against UAB in 2004-05 is tied with Britney Griner for the NCAA single-game record. TCU's 19 team blocks in that game remain an NCAA record.
The Frogs also hold the NCAA record for consecutive made 3-pointers with 11 straight makes from long range against Lamar on March 3, 1996.
Emily Carter connected on 60 consecutive free throws across the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, which is tied for the third-longest streak in NCAA Division I history.
TCU overcame a 24-point deficit to defeat Iowa State in 2014-2015. The rally is the fourth-largest deficit overcome in a win in NCAA Division I history. The Frogs trailed 51-27 with 16:21 remaining in the game before coming back to win, 86-84.

TCU ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS

The TCU Athletics Communications Office is located inside Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The main office phone number is (817) 257-7969 and the fax number is (817) 257-7964. The women's basketball contact is Brady Johnson. He can be reached directly in his office at (817) 257-5369 or via e-mail at braden.r.johnson@tcu.edu. Media members may also contact him on his cell phone at (682) 321-2297.

TCU ONLINE

All TCU basketball information is available online at the official website of TCU athletics, GoFrogs.com. All statistical information, along with an archive of the entire season's game stories, game notes and press releases, can be found there.

BIG 12 COMMUNICATIONS

Contact the Big 12 Conference Communications Department for any information or questions concerning Big 12 women's basketball during the 2025-26 season. The Big 12 women's basketball media contact is Joshua Conrad. He can be reached by phone at 469-524-1026 or via e-mail at jconrad@big12sports.com. For the most up-to-date information regarding Big 12 women's basketball, visit the official website of the league at Big12Sports.com.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Interviews with TCU basketball student-athletes and coaches must be scheduled directly through the TCU Athletics Communications Office by contacting Brady Johnson. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance. While telephone interviews with local media members are permissible, in-person interviews with student-athletes and coaches are recommended and encouraged. All practices are open unless otherwise specified. TV crews and photographers are only permitted to shoot practice after receiving permission from the Athletics Communications Office.

MEDIA WILL CALL

All media passes available for pickup on game day will be left at media will call, located in the main tunnel on the event level Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All credential requests for home TCU women's basketball games should be made to Brady Johnson. All credential requests for an outlet must be made at one time, and only those applications submitted by an outlet's sports editor or sports director will be considered. Requests should be received no later than noon, one day prior to the game.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

The TCU Athletics Communications Office will provide rosters of both teams, game notes, statistics and media guides to accredited media members for each home contest inside the media room on the event level of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. Complete statistics and game books will be available following each game. Live stats will be available for every TCU home game at TCU.StatBroadcast.com. Media wishing to file stories after the game may do so in the press conference/media room, while food and drinks will be available for working media members prior to each home game in the same location.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Courtesy ethernet connections are available courtside on press row for the visiting team's official radio station. The visitor's radio location is at the end of press row. The TCU radio location is located on the opposite end of press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

As prescribed in NCAA and Big 12 Conference guidelines, working photographers will be limited to the court baseline areas for game-time shooting. No photographers will be allowed to shoot courtside from in front of either the officials or press row tables. Additionally, tripods will not be allowed at courtside or along the end lines. Strobe light installations must first gain approval by TCU Associate Athletics Director Sassan Sahba. He can be reached at (817) 257-5658 or via e-mail (s.sahba@tcu.edu). No upper-level shooting platforms are available inside Schollmaier Arena. Photographers who wish to cover TCU home games must apply for credentials.

TCU ON THE RADIO

TCU women's basketball games are broadcast live on the radio on 88.7 KTCU FM. Chris Blake, who enters his second season with the team, will serve as the primary play-by-play announcer. Broadcasts will also be available online on GoFrogs.com.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

TCU head coach Mark Campbell and requested student-athletes will be available for interviews in the media area, located on the lower level of Schollmaier Arena, following a brief cooling-off period. If requested, opposing coaches and student-athletes can be available to the media in the media area prior to TCU's arrival. To request specific players to attend the postgame press conference, contact Brady Johnson during the second half of the game. The TCU locker room is closed to the media both at home and on the road.

WIRELESS INTERNET ACCESS

A wireless internet connection is available courtside. To use the wireless connection, join the secured network "TCU Pressbox" and enter the provided password. Should you encounter technical difficulties, contact a member of TCU Athletics Communications and he/she will be happy to assist you.

GOFROGS.COM

For all the up-to-date information on TCU women's basketball, be sure to visit GoFrogs.com. The official website of TCU Athletics is to go-to place for schedules, results, recaps, stats, photos, videos and much more.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Fans are also encouraged to follow the TCU women's basketball program on social media throughout the 2025-26 school year. TCU basketball can be found on Twitter (@tcuwbb), Facebook (@TCUWBasketball) and Instagram (@tcuwbb)

JUST TCU, PLEASE

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU men's tennis, TCU volleyball, TCU football, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully request that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation–TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

TCU ON THE RADIO

Chris Blake enters his third season as the play-by-play voice for the TCU women's basketball team in 2024-25. He served as the studio host for football and men's basketball games last season, has been the analyst for soccer matches on ESPN+ since 2018, and has filled in on men's and women's basketball games over the years.

Chris calls high school football for Southlake Carroll and filled in as studio host on Texas Rangers broadcasts during the 2023 season.

Now a podcast producer at NewsRadio 1080 KRLD, Chris got his professional start as a play-by-play broadcaster for the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks. He has covered news and sports on digital, print, and broadcast platforms for NBC 5, SportsNet New York, MLB.com, and the New York Yankees.

A 2011 graduate of TCU, Chris lives in Carrollton with his wife Lindsey, and two dogs, Gus and Maggie.

MIKE BUDDIE

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

First year at TCU

Mike Buddie was named TCU's ninth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Jan. 1, 2025.

Since his arrival to Fort Worth, TCU's beach volleyball team won its first NCAA National Championship and the women's basketball team won the Big 12 Championship and reached the Elite Eight for the first time in program history. He then locked up both head coaches, Hector Gutierrez and Mark Campbell, with contract extensions.

Buddie joined TCU from the United States Military Academy at West Point, where he served as Director of Athletics for more than five years. During his tenure, he led Army Athletics to new heights. Football earned a College Football Playoff ranking in 2024 as the Black Knights won a program record 12 games, a mark that ties for the most in a season by any service academy in history.

In September 2023, Buddie launched a "Fruits of Victory" strategic plan aimed at delivering a premier cadet-athlete experience to mold them into exceptional leaders and officers in the United States Army. Buddie led major facilities improvements and innovative investments in the Black Knights' programs, highlighted by a $170 million Michie Stadium Preservation Project which is the most ambitious private gift-funded construction project in the history of the United States Military Academy. He also secured football-only membership in the American Athletic Conference in 2024, as Army went undefeated in winning the league championship in its debut season while also maintaining its fight for the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Buddie was instrumental in securing Army West Point's television contract with CBS and extended partnerships with bowl games and Nike. Additionally, he has been prominent on the national level as Chair of the Division I Baseball Committee.

Buddie was able to retain successful head coaches throughout his time at West Point, providing contract extensions to Head Football Coach Jeff Monken as well as coaches in four other sports who received Patriot League Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to his time at Army West Point, Buddie served four years as athletics director at Furman University. He negotiated a multi-year partnership with Nike, produced the department's first balanced budget and spearheaded an effort to bring the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament back to Upstate South Carolina in 2017. He also secured several major financial gifts, including a trio of $1 million endowments in support of the football and volleyball programs. Under Buddie's leadership, the Paladins won 26 Southern Conference Championships.

Buddie was also senior associate athletic director for administration/development at Wake Forest. During his decade in Winston-Salem, N.C., he oversaw a number of different areas while serving as the sport administrator for baseball, women's soccer and men's golf. He also worked with the football and men's basketball programs. He was previously director of Wake Forest's Varsity Club.

Buddie is a 1993 graduate of Wake Forest with a degree in communications. He was a standout on the mound for the Demon Deacons baseball team. He was selected by the New York Yankees in the fourth round of the 1992 Major League Baseball draft. During his career, Buddie played for the Yankees and Milwaukee Brewers from 1998 to 2002 and was a member of the Yankees' 1998 World Series championship team.

Buddie and his wife Traci have two children, Zachary and Zoe.

Buddie is the sixth athletic director TCU women's golf head coach Angie Ravaioli-Larkin has worked under. The Horned Frogs broke 17 team or individual school records and achieved their highest year-end national ranking in Buddie's first semester at the helm.

The Furman women's golf program won four consecutive conference championships from 2015-19 during Buddie's tenure as athletic director. The Paladins notched back-to-back NCAA National Championships apperances in 2017 and 2018 under Buddie's leadership.

DANIEL PULLIN

CHANCELLOR

Seventh year at TCU

Daniel W. Pullin, an accomplished educator, leader and innovator, became Texas Christian University's 11th Chancellor on June 1, 2025. With an entrepreneurial spirit and unwavering commitment to student success, Chancellor Pullin is dedicated to advancing TCU's mission and vision. His early foundation in world-renowned business organizations and 20 years of higher education experience uniquely position him to lead TCU into a future of continued excellence.

Before becoming Chancellor, Pullin served as TCU President since 2023. Infusing operational expertise and innovation into TCU's leadership team, Pullin led the charge to develop a new strategic plan to ensure TCU advances its mission for the next 150 years. Approved by the Board in November 2024, TCU's new strategic plan, LEAD ON: Values in Action, is a bold, innovative plan that builds on TCU's momentum and position of strength to lead TCU to new heights and greater levels of student success and impact.

Guided by the TCU core values of integrity, engagement, community and excellence, and inclusive of input from more than 10,000 stakeholders, LEAD ON: Values in Action further enhances TCU's excellence in student-centered growth, research, scholarship and creative activities, athletics and community engagement.

Chancellor Pullin is an energetic leader committed to serving TCU's broad array of students, faculty, staff, alumni and supporters and advancing TCU's excellence both nationally and internationally. In 2024, he established the university's inaugural Office of University Strategy and Innovation to foster TCU's forward-thinking strategies, culture of innovation and ensure TCU remains competitive in a rapidly changing educational landscape. Through his leadership and executive team, TCU has seen significant increases in student success outcomes, research and creative activity expenditures, athletic success and engagement with the Fort Worth community and beyond. In addition to serving as Chancellor, Pullin remains in the classroom as a professor of entrepreneurship and innovation.

Pullin first joined TCU in 2019 as the John V. Roach Dean of the Neeley School of Business. Throughout his tenure, Neeley experienced dynamic faculty and staff growth and curriculum innovation, earned increased national visibility and rankings, realized development success and implemented a commitment to community excellence. Before joining TCU, Pullin was the Dean of the Price College of Business at the University of Oklahoma and served as university vice president. Before transitioning to higher education, Pullin worked for global consultancy McKinsey & Company and the private equity firm Hicks Muse Tate & Furst and its portfolio companies.

Honored as one of Fort Worth, Inc.'s 500 Most Influential People in Fort Worth and D CEO Magazine's 500 Most Influential Business Leaders in North Texas, Pullin has won several awards for teaching, innovation in business and academic integrity. He is committed to civic and higher education leadership, serving on the Fort Worth Economic Development Partnership Executive Council, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Dallas Regional Chamber Board of Advisors and is a member of Valliance Bank Board. He actively engages with higher education leadership groups, including Big 12 Conference presidents, Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (ICUT), the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), the Education Advisory Board (EAB) University Presidents Roundtable and the CCI University Presidents Roundtable.

Pullin earned his undergraduate degrees from the University of Oklahoma and an MBA from Harvard Business School before returning to OU to earn a Juris Doctor. Chancellor Pullin and his wife, Ann Bluntzer Pullin, Ph.D., are avid sports fans and enjoy attending TCU fine arts and athletic events with their children.
